Foreword

The Ministry of Finance is pleased to bring out 2nd edition of the Rules on the Income Tax Act of the Kingdom of Bhutan, 2001. This revision was necessary to reflect recent changes mandated by the 82nd session of the National Assembly to the Income Tax Act, 2001 as well as to keep pace with changing business and economic conditions that have taken place after implementation of the Income Tax Act in 2001.

The revised Rules supercede all previous circulars, notifications and rules governing Corporate Income Tax, Business Income Tax and Personal Income Tax. The Rules must be read together with the Act, as it follows the same section sequence of the Act for easy cross-reference by the users. Attempts have been made, wherever possible, to keep these Rules simple, easy to understand, and practicable for administrative ease and taxpayers' convenience.

The revised Rules also define the legal responsibilities of the taxpayers as well as the tax authorities. It is the legal responsibility of every taxpayer to make correct and timely payment of taxes, while the legal responsibility of the tax authorities is to assess and collect taxes in a fair, effective, and transparent manner.

The Ministry of Finance hopes that these updated Rules will facilitate better understanding of all procedural and technical aspects concerning Corporate Income Tax, Business Income Tax and Personal Income Tax, to both the taxpayers and the tax administrators, and ensure smooth implementation of the Income Tax Act of the Kingdom of Bhutan, 2001 in the Kingdom.

(Wangdi Norbu)
Finance Minister

In exercise of powers conferred by the Income Tax Act of the Kingdom of Bhutan, 2001 (ACT), the Ministry of Finance (Ministry) hereby frames the following Rules on Corporate Income Tax (CIT), Business Income Tax (BIT) and Personal Income Tax (PIT).

The Rules have been framed only where the Ministry of Finance is empowered by the Act. All references to Parts and Sections in these Rules pertain to the Act and must be read together with the Act.

These Rules shall supercede all previous Circulars, Notifications, and Rules governing Corporate, Business and Personal Income Tax and shall come into force from 1st January 2005.

PART I CORPORATE INCOME TAX (CIT)

1 Rule No.1 Tax Holidays and Incentives (Chapter 3, also applicable to Part II: BIT)

The Ministry of Finance may announce, from time to time, such tax holidays and tax incentives and prescribe the conditions and procedures thereof, in the interest of the public and in line of the government policy in vogue.

2 Rule No. 2 Allowable Deductions (Chapter 4, also applicable to Part II: BIT)

2.1 General Principle

Deductions shall be allowed for tax purposes if proper books of accounts are maintained as per the provisions under Rule No. 4 of the General Provisions.

In order to qualify as an allowable deduction an expense must be incurred solely and exclusively for the purpose of the business and transactions done on an arm's length basis*. All expenses must be supported by objective evidences such as purchase invoices, money receipts or other legally valid documents.

Where only part of an expense has been incurred for the purpose of business or company, then only that part of the expenses shall be allowed as a deduction in the calculation of taxable profit.

Any expenses charged in excess of the limits prescribed under these Rules shall be added back to Net Profit and subject to tax.

Allowable deductions are grouped into the following broad categories:

- Direct Costs
- Employment Expenses
- Overhead Expenses
- Sales & Marketing Expenses
- Bad debts
- Miscellaneous/General Expenses.
- Fixed Assets & Depreciation
- Interest Payments

*Arms length's basis mean transactions at the prevailing market conditions and where there is no conflict of interest.

2.2 Direct Costs (Section 11)

All direct costs incurred solely for the purpose of the business and associated with the operation of the enterprise are allowable deductions. Direct costs are those costs, which can be directly attributed to the generation of income. e.g. raw materials purchased by manufacturing industries.

2.3 Employment Expenses (Section 12)

Employment expenses means salary, wages, labour permit fees and allowances paid in money or money's worth to an employee in relation to his or her employment and includes pay and any benefits provided free of cost or at a concessional rate by an employer.

2.3.1 Salary

Salary means pay, allowances and includes benefits provided free of cost or at a concessional rate to an employee who is employed full time in the business.

Salary shall be allowed as deductible expense only to the maximum ceiling prescribed below and on the fulfilment of the following conditions:

- All information and documentary evidence are available regarding the payment of salary,
- The employee is a regular employee of the company or business,
- The employee is actually working with the company or business and
- The employee is actually located at the appropriate place of work.

(per month)

Category	BIT
Large	50,000
Medium	40,000
Small	30,000
Cottage/micro	20,000

Note:

- a. The salary limits shall not apply to incorporated companies with effect from the 1st of January 2003.
- b. The above limits may be enhanced for technical experts and highly professional employees with the prior approval of the Ministry.
- c. The categorisation of companies and businesses shall be as per categorisation given in Annexure I.

2.3.2 Wages

Wages means payments made to an individual who is not a regular employee of an organisation.

2.3.3 Benefits

Benefits means benefits provided by an employer to its employee such as education facilities, accommodation, domestic services, holiday trips, tiffin allowances, telephone facilities, medical benefits. Benefits shall be treated as tax-deductible expenses provided that it is clubbed under salary and is within the prescribed limits. Such benefits shall be valued at the actual cost incurred by the employer, or as agreed in the Service Manual of the organisation or in accordance with the employment contract. If actual costs incurred apply to more than one employee, the total cost shall be allocated on a pro rata basis.

Benefits provided free of cost or at a concessional rate to an employee should be valued as follows:

a) Accommodation

Accommodation provided free or at a concessional rate by an employer to its employee is a deductible expense if it is within the salary limit prescribed in Rule No.2.3.1 Valuation of accommodation shall be:

- The actual cost incurred by the employer in providing the accommodation, or 30% of the employee's basic salary if the cost cannot be determined.
- The actual concessional rate provided to the employee, or 30% of the employee's salary less the rent being charged by the employer if the cost cannot be determined.

b) Domestic Service

Domestic services provided by an employer to its employee is a deductible expense if it is within the prescribed salary limit. The valuation of domestic services provided free of cost should be done on the actual cost incurred by the employer in providing the service.

c) Gas, Electricity and Water Supplies

Gas, electricity and water supplies provided free or at a concessional rate to an employee is a deductible expense. The valuation of such benefits shall be the actual cost incurred by the employer in providing such benefits. Where the cost cannot be determined, 2% of the employee's basic salary shall be taken as the cost of the benefits.

d) Conveyance or Transport Facility

Conveyance or transport facility provided free or at a concessional rate to an employee is a deductible expense. Valuation of such benefits shall be the actual cost incurred by the employer in providing such benefits.

However, bus services provided for daily transport of staff to work place shall not form part of the salary.

e) Telephone facilities

Telephone facilities provided to an employee is a deductible expense. The value of such benefit shall be the actual cost incurred by the employers in providing the facilities to the employee.

However, where such benefits cannot be segregated between private and business use, 50% of the total expense shall be treated as benefits for PIT purposes.

2.3.4 Bonus

The term ‘bonus’ includes all incentives or productivity related payments made to an employee. Bonuses paid shall be allowed as a deduction subject to fulfilment of the following conditions:

- a) The amount is reasonable with regard to the employee’s pay and conditions of service,
- b) The amount is consistent with the practice in other similar enterprises and
- c) The total bonus payable is limited to 10% of the assessed net profit or 2 months basic pay per employee, whichever is lower.

However, in the case of a business not registered under the Companies Act, bonus paid to a business proprietor, partner, or their immediate family (father, mother, spouse or children) shall not be allowed as deduction for tax purposes.

2.3.5 Contribution to Provident Fund and Gratuity Fund

Contributions made by an employer to the Provident Fund & Gratuity Fund for the benefit of the employees are allowable deductions subject to the following conditions:

- a) Such contributions are invested with a financial institution in a separate account as PF and GF Account and
- b) The limits to be applied to this expenditure must be consistent with the Service Manual of the company or business. If no such Service Manual exists, then the Civil Service Rules shall apply.

In cases where the eventual pay out to the employee upon his or her retirement is less than the guaranteed amount in the Service Manual, any additional amount contributed thereof by the employer to make up the guaranteed amount shall be allowed as deduction. Contributions not payable due to termination of services shall be added back to the Net profit and subject to tax.

2.3.6 Staff Welfare Expenses

Staff welfare expenses means provision of canteen and recreational facilities to employees within the business premises and shall be allowed on an actual basis.

2.3.7 Medical Expenses

Medical expenses for treatment of an employee shall be allowed as deduction subject to the following conditions:

- a) Medical expenses are in respect to an employee only;
- b) Prior recommendation must be obtained from the Referral Committee of the Health Ministry for treatment outside Bhutan and
- c) Maximum expenses allowed shall be the actual cost of the treatment up to a maximum limit of Nu. 50,000 per annum per employee.

2.3.8 Human Resource Development Expenses

Expenses incurred for Human Resource Development of employees shall be allowed as deductible expense provided such expenses are incurred for the purpose of upgrading and developing the employees' craft, supervisory and technical skills or increasing the productivity or quality of its products.

If such expenses exceed 1% of the assessed turnover, then the full expenditure must be spread equally over a period of three years starting from the year the expense is incurred.

2.4 Overhead Expenses (Section 13)

2.4.1 Preliminary Expenses

Preliminary expenses mean all legitimate expenses incurred prior to the commencement of a business or in connection with the extension of an existing business. Such expenses incurred may be spread equally and allowed as deduction over the first 3 years of operation. Examples of these expenses include feasibility studies, market surveys, engineering services, project reports, and legal fees.

2.4.2 Research & Development

Research and development is defined as "use of scientific or technical know-how" to produce new or substantially improved materials, mechanisms, products, processes, systems or services. Research and development shall be allowed as deduction subject to the following conditions:

- a) Research and development cost not exceeding 2% of the assessed turnover will be allowed as a deductible expense;
- b) Research and development cost exceeding 2% of the assessed turnover will be treated as capital expenditure. The full amount of the cost will be capitalised and depreciated in three subsequent years immediately following the income year and
- c) Any cost of buying machinery, inventory, stock in trade and immovable property acquired for the use of research and development shall be depreciated in accordance with the ordinary rules of depreciation as referred to under Rule No. 4 of this Part.

2.4.3 General Office Expenditure

The following items of general expenditure incurred for the purpose of the business shall be treated as allowable deductions:

- Printing & stationery;
- Postage & telegram expenses;
- Telephone, trunk call & telex charges;
- User charges;
- Administrative fees and charges;
- Any other expenses of similar nature.

2.4.4 Insurance Premium

Insurance premium paid for any assets owned by an enterprise is an allowable deduction, provided that the asset is owned/registered and used for the purpose of the business.

Insurance premium paid for employees to protect against occupational risks and hazards at their work place shall be allowed as deduction.

2.4.5 Maintenance & Repair Costs

Maintenance & repair costs refer to current repairs of buildings and other assets owned and used for the purpose of the business. The asset must be shown in the balance sheet and included in the taxpayer's fixed asset register.

Current repair costs refers to any cost incurred to maintain the asset in a consistent working condition, without changing the nature of the asset. Only current repair costs shall be treated as revenue expenditure.

Major repair/enhancement work that modifies or significantly improves the asset, such that the original nature of the asset is altered, must be treated as capital expenditure and depreciated accordingly.

Where a taxpayer purchases an asset, but that asset requires additional expenditure to bring it to a useable condition, such additional expenditure must be capitalised as part of the cost of the asset.

Where a worn out asset is replaced with a new asset, the cost of the new asset must be capitalised.

Where an asset is upgraded, i.e. its nature is fundamentally altered, the associated cost must be capitalised.

2.4.6 Hire of Plant, Machinery & Vehicles

The hire cost of plant, machinery and vehicles plus any associated costs referred to in the lease agreement shall be treated as an allowable deduction, provided that the expenditure is incurred for the purpose of business and the services are availed from another tax entity.

2.4.7 Rent of Land & Buildings

Rental of property used for business purposes along with associated costs referred to in the lease agreement shall be treated as an allowable deduction, provided that the expenditure is incurred for the purpose of business and the services are availed from another tax entity.

2.4.8 Municipal and Motor Vehicle Tax

Municipal and motor vehicle tax shall be allowed as tax deductions provided that the asset is owned and used for the purpose of business. However, motor vehicles tax paid by licensed/registered transport companies/businesses shall be adjusted against their final tax liability.

2.4.9 Trade Licence Registration & Renewal Fees

Trade licence registration and renewal fees are allowable deductions. However, this provision only applies to fees related to trade licenses issued and renewed by Ministry of Trade and Industry (MTI). All other fees that are sometimes referred to as 'license fees' including auction rights such as liquor licence fees, mining rights are not covered under this provision, and are not allowed as deductions.

2.4.10 Legal & Professional Fees/Expenses

All fees and expenses related to legal and professional work carried out on behalf of an enterprise for the purpose of business are allowed as deductions.

2.4.11 Annual Membership Fees & Subscriptions

Any membership fees paid or subscriptions made to any organisation or association relevant to the business shall be allowed as deductions.

2.4.12 Interest on Loans

Interest on loans shall be allowed as deductions subject to the conditions and procedures prescribed below:

- a) Loans are taken from a recognised financial institution and within the maximum limit of debt equity ratio of 3:1, i.e. the total borrowings for tax purposes shall not exceed thrice the paid up capital of the company;

Borrowings include all types of capital loans (e.g. debentures, term loans etc.), plus any working capital borrowings (e.g. bank overdrafts).

Capital includes paid up share capital (CIT taxpayers) or owners' investment (BIT taxpayers), plus any retained profit reserves.

- b) The loan must be taken in the name of the companies/business and for the purpose of the said business;
- c) Interest paid on loans transacted between holding and subsidiary companies at prevailing market conditions is an allowable deduction provided it is shown as income of the recipient company;
- d) Interest paid prior to the commissioning of a project (or commencement of a business) shall be capitalised, and depreciated as part of the asset and
- e) Interest paid on security deposits shall be treated as taxable income in the books of the recipient company, and as an expense for the company making the payment.

2.5 Sales & Marketing Expenses (Section 14)

Sales and marketing expenses means expenses incurred for promotion of sales and include expenses such as commission, entertainment, publicity, advertisement etc.

2.5.1 Commission

Commission paid on purchase transactions is an allowable deduction as it forms part of the purchase payment for goods or services. However, such commissions must be clearly stated in the documentation relating to the purchase.

Commission paid to a sales agent is an allowable deduction provided that the commission is clearly stated in all relevant bills, invoices and cash memos, or a special agreement in writing between the parties exists and is properly recorded in the books of accounts.

2.5.2 Entertainment

Entertainment expenses refer to hospitality and gifts provided to existing or potential clients or customers, agents or suppliers. Entertainment expenses directly related to sales promotion of the business shall be allowed as deductions on actual expenses or 2% of the assessed Net Profit, whichever is lower. However, it shall be 5% of the assessed net profit or actual expenses incurred, whichever is lower, for four operating businesses.

2.5.3 Publicity & Advertisement

Publicity expenses such as printing of brochures and advertisement through media and magazines shall be allowed as deductions on an actual basis or 2% of the assessed Gross Income, whichever is lower.

2.6 Bad Debts (Section 15)

Bad debts shall be allowed as deductions subject to the fulfilment of the following conditions:

2.6.1 Bad debts up to Nu. 25,000 per Debtor

A bad debt of Nu. 25,000 or less per debtor shall be allowed as deduction on the fulfilment of the following conditions:

- a) Tax has been paid on such debts in a previous year;
- b) The debt is not less than 5 years old and
- c) Bad debt shall be incorporated as income if recovered in the subsequent years or
- d) Where the debtor is declared bankrupt under the Bankruptcy Act of the Kingdom of Bhutan or

e) Scheme of arrangement is made under the supervision of a judge. In the case of financial institutions, bad debts below Nu.100,000 per debtor may be written off if the conditions above are met.

2.6.2 Bad debts exceeding Nu. 25,000 per Debtor

Bad debts exceeding Nu. 25,000 per debtor shall be allowed as deductions on the fulfilment of the following conditions:

- a) Tax has been paid on such debts in a previous year,
- b) Judicial recourse has been exhausted in respect of the debt, and
- c) Bad debt shall be incorporated as income if recovered in the subsequent years, or
- d) Where the debtor is declared bankrupt under the Bankruptcy Act of the Kingdom of Bhutan, or
- e) Scheme of arrangement is made under the supervision of a Judge.

2.7 Miscellaneous and General Expenses (Section 16)

2.7.1 Accidental Loss

Accidental loss means loss due to events such as theft, fire, earthquake, flood and road accidents. Documentary evidences such as police report and Court order must support accidental losses, if applicable. Accidental losses for the purpose of taxation shall be treated as follows:

- a) Revenue losses shall be allowed as deductions and revenue receipts/compensation as taxable income.
- b) Capital losses shall be treated as per Rule No. 4.6 of this Part.

2.7.2 Stock Obsolescence

Stock obsolescence shall not be allowed as deductions unless the obsolescence is due to unforeseen circumstances and the taxpayer was not in a position to avoid it. Conditions to be fulfilled for the above exceptions are:

- a) Maintenance of a proper stock inventory register and
- b) Proper records showing disposal and sale of the obsolete stock.

2.7.3 Stock Shortages

Stock shortages due to unavoidable circumstances within an industry average shall be allowed as deductions subject to maintenance of proper book of accounts. Shortages due to negligence shall not be allowed as deductions for tax purposes.

2.7.4 Bhutan Sales Tax (BST)/Customs Duty

BST or Customs Duty paid on assets shall be capitalised and depreciated as per Rule No. 4 of this Part.

However, BST collected on sale of domestic goods and services such as BST on hotels, restaurant, beer, cement and entertainment services shall not be allowed as deductions.

2.7.5 Carriage & Freight Charges

Carriage and freight expenses incurred for business purposes shall be allowed as deductions. However, such charges incurred for initial transportation of fixed assets to its place of use shall be capitalised and depreciated accordingly.

Note:

However the total donation under point 1 and 2 of this section shall be allowed as tax deductible expenditure upto a maximum limit of 5% of the assessed Net Profit.

2.8 Carry Forward and Offset of Losses (Section 17)

Losses sustained during an income year can be carried forward and adjusted against future profits of the same business for a maximum period of 3 years.

Once a loss has been used to reduce taxable profits, it cannot be used again in future years.

In all cases, losses of one company cannot be used to offset the taxable Net profit of another company.

Record of losses carried forward must be maintained and submitted along with the Income Tax Return.

2.9 Assets acquired through Grant

Receipt of grants whether in cash or in kind from the government or from a donor directly or through the government indirectly shall be taxed as follows:

- a) Revenue related grants received for day-to-day functioning of the organisation shall be treated as taxable income and all expenses related to such grants shall be allowed as deductions.
- b) Receipt of capital related grants shall not be subject to tax and expenses incurred in relation to capital related grants (including depreciation) shall not be allowed as deductions. Capital grants, for the purpose of these Rules, means grants received in kind in the form of land, building, plant and machinery, equipment, vehicles, tools, etc or in cash to purchase land, building, plant and machinery, equipment, vehicles, tools, working capital such as stock and raw materials.

However, direct expenses including depreciation shall be allowed as deduction provided:

- The grant is treated as capital reserves at comparable costs in the case of fully owned government corporations.
- The grant is treated as capital/equity contribution of the government and shares of equivalent value are issued to the government in the case of partially owned government corporations.
- The grant is treated as loan from the government as per terms and conditions prescribed by the Ministry of Finance in the case of private companies/businesses.

2.10 Immovable Leased Assets

Assets owned, fixtures erected, and substantial improvements made on leased land shall be, for the purpose of these Rules, deemed to be owned by the lessee subject to the fulfillment of the following conditions.

- a) There should be a valid lease agreement executed between the

- lessor and the lessee, and the agreement should be for a term period extending more than five years.
- b) Depreciation shall be allowed only to the extent of investment made by the lessee.
 - c) The lessee, on expiry of the lease, shall be deemed to have disposed of such fixtures and improvements, gains on which shall be taxable, and losses deductible.
 - d) The lessor after the expiry of the lease shall be allowed to be depreciated on such improvements or fixtures provided consideration equivalent to such assets have been paid to the lessee, and registered as the lessors' assets.

2.11 Lease Rent

Lease rent payable by a lessee to a lessor as consideration for the property leased is a deductible expense. The payment of lease rent in lump sum amount must be spread evenly over the period of the lease, while payment of lease rent on an annual basis shall be as per the amount scheduled in the lease agreement.

2.12 Deductions not Allowed for Tax Purposes (Section 18)

The following are examples of expenses not allowed as deductions:

- Personal expenses on food, clothing, marriage etc. These expenses are not for the purpose of the business.
- Personal administrative fees of employees and their families (e.g. identity cards, citizenship cards, etc.). These expenses are not for the purpose of the business.
- Payments of dividend or profit distributions to share holders, partners and proprietors.
- Creation of or adjustments to reserves except in specific cases.
- Creation of provisions for bad debts/advances except for financial institutions.
- Life and/or health insurance premiums, except for schemes that have been approved by RGOB.
- Business Income Tax, Corporate Income Tax and Personal Income Tax.
- Penalties, fines, penal interest, forfeiture, etc.
- Donations other than those authorised by the Ministry.
- Interest on loans from private sources.

- Interest on loans taken to pay dividend.

3 Rule No. 3 Deductions and Carry Forward of loss by the debtor when the debt is forgiven (Chapter 5, Section 20)

When a debt is forgiven by a creditor, both the debtor and creditor shall make the following adjustments in the books of accounts:

- a) Debtor cannot carry forward as a loss the forgiven amount.
- b) Where conditions laid down in Section 19, Chapter 5, Part I of the Income Tax Act of the Kingdom of Bhutan, 2001 are not fulfilled, the creditor cannot treat the forgiven debt as a loss. Such debt shall be added back to the taxable Net Profit.

4 Rule No.4 Depreciation (Chapter 6)

Fixed assets, for the purpose of these Rules, are assets that are intended for use within the enterprise on a continuous basis for more than one accounting period.

4.1 Depreciation of Fixed Assets

The Rules regarding depreciation of fixed assets are as follows:

- a) Depreciation on assets purchased and owned by the taxpayer and used for the purpose of the business, except antiques, works of art and land, will be allowed as deduction, subject to the maximum depreciation rates prescribed in Annexure II.
- b) Depreciation shall be calculated on the Straight Line Method (SLM) on an asset at the end of the year.
- c) Assets purchased during the year shall be depreciated on a pro rata basis from the date of purchase.
- d) Assets disposed off during the year shall not be depreciated in the year of disposal and the difference between the sale proceeds and the written down value at the beginning of the year shall be declared in the profit and loss account.
- e) Small assets costing up to Nu. 25,000 in total per taxpayer in each income year may be written off. e.g. calculator, blow/rod heater, fans and the like.
- f) Maintenance of an asset register for all types of assets is mandatory, and must include details of each individual fixed asset owned by the business or company.
- g) Fully depreciated assets that are still in use must be recorded in the asset register at a value of Nu.1 for identification purposes.

The depreciation rates given in Annexure II are the maximum limits allowed. Where a taxpayer applies a lower depreciation rate than that prescribed in Annexure II, the taxpayer will be permitted to make a clear adjustment on the tax return. However, if this adjustment is not made, the tax officer will not be responsible for increasing the depreciation claim on the taxpayer's behalf, and should accept the lower amount charged in the accounts.

Where business premises are closed for a considerable period or more than 180 days in one income year, no depreciation of assets will be allowed during that time.

In order to claim depreciation, the following conditions must be fulfilled:

- The asset must be purchased and registered in the name of the business or company.
- The asset must be intended exclusively for use of the business or company.
- Proper books of accounts must be maintained, including a complete fixed asset register containing details of each individual asset for which depreciation is claimed.
- Where the asset is only partially used by the business, then only an appropriate portion of the depreciation can be charged for tax purposes.

4.2 Maintenance & Repair of Fixed Assets

Expenses for the maintenance and repair of fixed assets are classed as operating expenses and should be written off in the year the work is carried out. However, if the maintenance or repair substantially enhances the value of an asset then that expenditure shall be capitalised and depreciated accordingly.

4.3 Fixed Asset Additions

Where a new asset is purchased and delivered during the income year, depreciation must be charged on a pro rata basis.

4.4 Fixed Asset Disposals

When a fixed asset is sold, the profit earned or loss sustained is part of the taxable Net profit or loss of the business or company. The correct profit or loss on disposal is calculated by deducting the net book value of the asset from the actual sales proceeds. Where disposal is not as per market conditions, a tax officer shall have the right to determine the residual value.

4.5 Appreciation of Fixed Assets

If the revaluation of the assets of a business, result in a higher value than that previously shown in the accounts, then the increase in value must be declared as taxable income in the profit and loss account. However where no depreciation is claimed on this increased value, in the profit and loss account, then the increase in value of the asset need not be declared as taxable income in the profit and loss account also.

4.6 Loss of Fixed Assets due to Theft, Fire and Natural Calamities

Loss of fixed assets due to theft, fire and natural calamities such as earthquake and flood may be written off in the books of accounts. The value of the asset to be written off shall be equivalent to the written down value as on 31st December of the previous year. No depreciation shall be allowed on such fixed assets in the year that it is written off.

4.7 Depreciation Rates

Depreciation shall be allowed every income year up to the maximum rates prescribed in Annexure II.

5 Rule No. 5 Rates & Calculation of Income Tax (Chapter 9, Section 46)

5.1 Calculation of Tax

All companies registered under the Companies Act of the Kingdom of Bhutan shall pay Corporate Income Tax (CIT) at the rate of 30% of the Net profit. Net profit for the purpose of calculating the tax shall be the Gross income minus the allowable deductions under these Rules.

6 Rule No. 6 Set Off and Carry Forward (Section 15)

6.1 Adjustment of TDS and Taxes Paid Quarterly

TDS and tax paid quarterly for the purpose of PIT shall be adjusted as follows:

- a) TDS and tax paid quarterly from salary income, rental income, dividend income, interest income and income from other sources shall be adjusted against the Tax Amount at the time of filing for a citizen and a resident as per Rule No. 3 of the General Provisions.
- b) For a person other than a citizen or a resident, TDS and taxes paid quarterly shall be treated as final PIT and such persons shall not be required to file income tax return.

6.2 Set Off

Set off and adjustment of personal income for the computation of Net Taxable Income shall be as follows:

Deficit from one income may be adjusted against another income provided the incomes are from the same source. Example: deficit from rental income of one property may be adjusted against the rental income from another house.

Deficit from one source shall not be adjusted against the income from another source.

Example: Deficit from rental income will not be allowed to be adjusted against the income from salary or any other source.

Deficit means specific deductions/exemption exceeding the Gross Income.

6.3 Carry Forward of Losses

Carry forward of loss or deficit from one income year to another or adjustment against the income of the subsequent year shall not be allowed under PIT.

7. Rule No. 7 Registration of Taxpayers and Filing of Tax Return (Chapter 4)

7.1 Tax Registration (Section 16)

All citizens above 18 years of age and residents having personal income from one or more of the sources during an income year shall register as per the procedures given below:

- a) The PIT registration FORM PIT-1 may be obtained from any RRCO.
- b) The completed form shall be submitted at the earliest to any of the RRCOs mentioned below. A person must mention in the Registration Form the RRCO where he/she would like to be registered as a taxpayer. This may be any one of the RRCOs where the person has a source of income.

- c) Married couples must choose the same RRCO for registration.
- d) Citizen ID No./Resident Permit Number issued by the Department of Immigration and Census shall be used as the key identification number for registration and must be used as a reference for all future tax transactions.

Location of RRCOs and their area of jurisdiction are indicated below:

SI	Regional Office	Dzongkhag
1	Thimphu	Thimphu, Punakha, Wangdiphodrang & Gasa
2	Paro	Paro & Haa
3	Phuentsholing	Chukha
4	Gelephu	Dagana, Sarpang, Tsirang & Zhemgang
5	Samtse	Samtse
6	Mongar	Mongar, Lhuentse, Trashigang & Trashiyangtse
7	Bumthang	Bumthang & Trongsa
8	Samdrupjongkhar	Samdrupjongkhar & Pemagatshel

7.2 Change of Registration from One RRCO to Another

Registration may be changed from one RRCO to another on submission of a written application by a taxpayer, no later than 2 months before the end of the income year.

The concerned RRCO must convey the decisions in writing within one month from the date of receipt of application. Permission may be given if the location of the business has moved to another region.

Where permission for transfer of a taxpayer's registration from one RRCO to another is given, the unit must obtain a Tax Clearance Certificate from the previous RRCO, showing the old registration details and tax status. This certificate must be submitted to the new RRCO before a new TPN number can be obtained. The old TPN number and RRCO must be recorded for reference. The previous RRCO shall be responsible for submitting a copy of all tax records to the new RRCO.

7.3 Cancellation of PIT Registration

For PIT purposes cancellation of registration takes place when a person dies or migrates. In such cases, an authorised representative or the taxpayer shall inform the concerned RRCO and obtain a Tax Clearance Certificate. A Tax Clearance Certificate shall be issued to the taxpayer by the RRCO.

7.4 Filing of Income Tax Return

All citizens above 18 years of age and residents having taxable personal income as mentioned under Rule No. 1.1 of this Part or their authorised representatives or persons claiming refund shall file the tax return as per FORM PIT-2 at the RRCO of registration before 1st March following the income year.

All tax return forms must contain full and correct information regarding the income and deductions and must be accompanied by relevant documents such as money receipts and TDS certificates for adjustment of TDS and taxes paid half yearly/quarterly.

Failure to file the income tax return as required shall result in fines and penalties as per Chapter 5 of the General Provisions of the Income Tax Act of the Kingdom of Bhutan, 2001.

7.5 Persons other than Citizens or Residents

Any person not a citizen or a resident but having personal income from sources in Bhutan or from work performed in Bhutan, TDS paid shall be treated as the final PIT and tax returns need not be filed. Where taxes have not been deducted at source, such person shall be required to file the tax return like a citizen or resident.

7.6 Correction of Tax Return

Taxpayers may correct their tax return within 15 days from the date of submission of tax return on genuine grounds and reasons acceptable to the RRCO. The correction of returns shall be limited to arithmetical errors and accounts heads and must be applied in writing to the Regional Director.

7.7 Postponement of Filing

Where a taxpayer is unable to submit the tax return within the due date, the Regional Director of the concerned RRCO may extend the time limit up to 1st May provided that:

- The taxpayer submits a written request for extension before 20th February for PIT.
- Postponement of filing shall not postpone the payment of tax. In such cases, the taxpayer shall make a suitable provisional tax payment equal to or more than the tax paid in the previous year.

Request for extension beyond 1st May shall be forwarded by the RRCO to the DRCHQ. DRCHQ may extend the time limit up to 1st August, in exceptional cases.

7.8 Payment of Tax

All companies, businesses, citizens or residents shall pay PIT on a self-declared basis at the time of filing the tax return. TDS/tax paid half yearly or quarterly shall be adjusted against the tax liability and any payment in excess shall be refunded as per Section 23 of the General Provisions of the Income Tax Act of the Kingdom of Bhutan, 2001.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

The Rules under this Part shall be applicable to all taxpayers be they under Corporate Income Tax, Business Income Tax or Personal Income Tax.

1 Rule No. 1 Assessment (Chapter 2)

1.1 Assessment Authority (Section 3)

The Department of Revenue and Customs through its Regional Revenue and Customs Offices shall be responsible for assessment of taxes.

All companies (FORM CIT-2), businesses (FORM BIT-2) and individuals (FORM PIT-2) shall submit their tax returns on a self-declared basis to the RRCO where they are registered as a taxpayer. Upon receipt of the tax return, the RRCO may carry out the assessment in one or more of the following ways:

1.2 Desk Assessment

Desk assessment shall be carried out when the tax return is submitted or within 90 days thereafter. Desk assessment shall include a logical check, an arithmetical check on the figures submitted, and a 'reasonableness' check on the level of self-declared tax. If any error or omission is found, the tax officer has the right to reject the tax return but shall collect the tax based on the self-declaration. In such case, the taxpayer shall be informed in writing stating clearly the reasons for rejection.

On completion of desk assessment, the RRCO may issue a demand notice for CIT, BIT units and for PIT taxpayers showing the full tax liability, any tax payments made and the balance payable.

Any additional tax due/payable after the due date of filing (CIT/BIT on 31st March and PIT on 1st March) shall result in fines and penalties at the rate of 24% per annum.

1.3 Field Assessment

If the desk assessment is not satisfactory, a field assessment may be carried out. Where a field assessment is required, the taxpayer shall be informed of the field assessment at least 2 weeks before the commencement of the field assessment. A field assessment must be completed within 2 years from the submission of tax returns. Reasons for field assessment may be:

- The desk assessment suggested missing or inadequate documentation.
- The desk assessment suggested that either adjustment or refund of provisional taxes is required.
- Loss incurred under normal circumstance and declared in the tax return.
- Where field assessment of the unit has not been carried out for the last 3 years.

Field assessment is completed by the RRCO as follows:

- Where no further tax liability is identified as a result of the assessment process, the tax officer shall issue a final assessment notice, indicating that no further tax payment is required for that income year.
- Where an assessment results in an additional tax liability, a final assessment notice and demand notice for CIT, BIT units and for PIT taxpayers shall be issued showing the full tax liability, any tax payments made and the balance payable.
- Where an assessment results in a reduced tax liability, the excess tax paid will be refunded, provided that the following conditions have been fulfilled:
 - All outstanding tax assessments have been completed and finalised.
 - There are no outstanding taxes, fines and penalties and interest against the unit or other units under the same ownership. Excess taxes refundable shall be adjusted against outstanding taxes if not already recovered.
 - There are no outstanding debts to the RGOB.

Adjustments against other outstanding taxes can be made at the RRCO level, but actual monetary refunds must always be authorised by DRCHQ.

Any additional tax due/payable after the due date of filing (CIT/BIT on 31st March, PIT on 1st March) shall result in a penal interest at the rate of 24% per annum.

1.4 Estimated Assessment

A tax officer shall make an estimated assessment in the following cases:

- Tax return has not been submitted within the prescribed time limit and no time extension request has been made and approved.
- A tax return has been rejected during desk assessment, and a valid re-submission has not been received.
- A business or company has failed to keep proper accounting records as required under Rule No. 4 of this Part.

Estimated assessment shall be based on one or more of the following:

- Tax returns filed for the last three years.
- Import and export figures available with the Department.
- Information from third parties such as customers.
- Taxes paid by other similar units.
- Taxes paid on an estimated basis in the previous year plus an appropriate increase.
- Any other information available on the taxpayer.

Estimated assessment is completed by the RRCO as follows:

The tax officer shall issue a demand notice as per for CIT, BIT units and for PIT taxpayers, showing the full tax liability, any tax payments made and the balance payable. The demand notice must clearly state the basis upon which the estimated assessment was finalised.

Any additional tax due/payable after the due date of filing (CIT/BIT on 31st March, PIT on 1st March) shall result in a penal interest at the rate of 24% per annum.

1.5 Reassessment

A reassessment may take place at any time within 5 years from the end of the income year, and shall be on any of the following grounds:

- Upon request from a taxpayer as a part of the appeal procedure.
- Upon request from the tax authorities where an appeal case cannot be concluded without further investigation.
- Upon request from a RRCO or DRCHQ where there are reasonable grounds.

Reassessment is completed by the RRCO as mentioned in Rule No.1.3 above.

Any additional tax due/payable after the due date of filing (CIT/BIT on 31st March, PIT on 1st March) shall result in a penal interest at the rate of 24% per annum.

1.6 Fines and Penalties (Chapter 5)

Failure to comply with the above Rules No. 1.2 to 1.5 shall result in fines and penalties as mentioned in Chapter 5 of the General Provisions of the Income Tax Act of the Kingdom of Bhutan, 2001.

2 Rule No. 2 Transfer and Closure of Business (Section 6)

2.1 Winding up of company

A company being wound up or liquidated shall be liable to tax in accordance with the provisions under the Companies Act of the Kingdom of Bhutan, 2000.

2.2 Transfer and Closure of Business

Liability to tax as a result of transfer or closure of a business shall be as follows:

2.2.1 Change of Business Ownership

Both the previous owner and the new owner shall report change of ownership of a business in writing to the concerned RRCO. Trade/ Industrial License shall also be transferred through the Ministry of Trade and Industry (MTI) on submission of Tax Clearance Certificate for companies, and for businesses issued by the RRCO.

Where the change of ownership has not been reported, the new owner shall be responsible for settlement of all outstanding tax liabilities.

2.2.2 Business Closure

When closing a business unit, the following procedures must be adhered to:

- The taxpayer must notify the RRCO at least 2 months before the date of closure.
- The taxpayer shall submit the final accounts till date and make provisions for the remaining 2 months.
- The taxpayer (companies and businesses) shall obtain a Tax Clearance Certificate from the concerned RRCO.

Where the change of ownership has not been reported, the new owner shall be responsible for settlement of all outstanding tax liabilities.

3 Rule No. 3 Collection (Chapter 3)

3.1 Collection Authority

The Department of Revenue and Customs through its Regional Revenue & Customs Office and withholding agencies shall be responsible for the collection of taxes as per the provisions given under this Rule.

3.2 Payment of Tax

Taxpayers shall pay taxes to the RRCO in one or more of the following ways as mentioned below:

3.2.1 Taxes paid during the income year

a) Advance Taxes

All companies and large and medium businesses shall pay advance tax as

Due date	Advance Tax amount
31st August	30% BIT/CIT based on half yearly Profit and Loss account, or where half yearly accounts cannot be submitted on reasonable grounds, 50% of the BIT/CIT paid in the previous year

b) Tax Paid on Quarterly basis

Individuals employed by an employer not liable to deduct tax at source shall pay tax in 4 equal instalments during the income year by computing their annual tax liability and dividing it into 4 instalments. The tax must be deposited with the RRCO where the individual is registered as a taxpayer on 31st March, 30th June, 30th September and 31st December of the income year.

3.2.2 Tax Deducted at Source (TDS)

TDS is a preliminary estimate of a person's annual tax liability and shall be adjusted against the final tax at the time of filing the annual tax return unless otherwise specified. The withholding agencies are responsible for deducting and depositing TD

- TDS must be deposited into a RGR account or to the concerned RRCO on or before 10th of the month following the date of deduction as per FORM IT-7 with a copy to the contractor.

b) Contractors under Limited Tax Liability

The contract awarder shall:

- Deduct contractor's tax at source at the rate of 3% of the gross amount on the day of payment as final tax of the contractor.
- TDS must be deposited into a RGR account or to the concerned RRCO on or before 10th of the month following the date of deduction as per FORM IT-7 with a copy to the contractor.

3.2.3 Tax Paid when Filing Annual Tax Return

Companies and businesses shall file their annual tax returns at the latest by March 31st and individuals at the latest by March 1st in the year following the income year. Advance tax, tax paid on a quarterly basis and TDS shall be adjusted provided accounts have been submitted (CIT/BIT taxpayers) and TDS deduction certificates produced (CIT/BIT/PIT taxpayers) in the following manner:

- a) Advance Tax shall be adjusted at the time of filing of tax return against provisional tax payable provided accounts are submitted.
- b) Taxes paid on a quarterly basis shall be adjusted at the time of filing of tax return provided revenue receipts are produced.
- c) TDS shall be adjusted
 - At the time of advance tax payment;
 - At the time of provisional tax payment;
 - At the time of final tax payment.

4 Rule No. 4 Information, Control and Documentation (Chapter 4)

All registered companies and business units shall maintain proper accounting records. The following sections are intended to provide a guideline as to what constitutes 'proper accounting records' for different categories of CIT/BIT taxpayers.

The specific book of accounts to be maintained by a taxpayer depends on the category of unit to which the taxpayer belongs. The categorisation of companies and business shall be in accordance with the categorization given in Annexure I.

4.1 Companies, Large and Medium Business units

All companies, large and medium business units regardless of their size must maintain the following books of account and associated records:

- Trial Balance;
- Manufacturing & Trading Accounts;
- Profit & Loss Accounts;
- Balance Sheet;
- General/Nominal Ledger;
- Cash Book, Bank Statements, and Bank Reconciliation Statements;
- Sales Ledger, Registers and Supporting bills, Cash Memos and Receipts;

- Purchase Ledger, Registers and Supporting Bills, Receipts and Vouchers;
- Journal Book;
- Fixed Asset Register;
- Stock Register.

4.2 Small, Cottage/Micro Business Units

Small businesses must maintain basic accounting records to ensure that all transactions are recorded. Therefore, for such businesses records such as cashbook, a daily list of sales summarised monthly & annually, cash memos, and purchase invoice may be maintained. However, where these records are not available, annual tax assessment shall be done on an estimated basis as per Rule No. 1.5 of the General Provisions.

4.3 Information from Third Parties

All public and private entities and individuals, on written request by a Regional Director or the Head of the Department, shall furnish any relevant information on a taxpayer. The request for information shall be made when a RRCO requires the information to determine tax liability of a taxpayer.

5 Rule No. 5 Recovery Measures (Chapter 6)

5.1 General

The following recovery measures shall be used when a company, business or person:

- Has not paid tax within the due date; or
- Has not deducted tax at source within due date; or
- Has not paid fines and penalties.

5.1.1 Agreement

The RRCO shall enter into an agreement with a taxpayer for recovery of tax dues and claims. The agreement shall specify dues, terms of payments, mode of payment etc. Prior approval of the DRCHQ is required if the payback period is longer than 12 months.

5.1.2 Restraint on Asset

Where a taxpayer defaults the payment of tax dues as per the agreement under Rule No. 5.1.1 above, the RRCO shall put a restraint on the taxpayer's property, or income from the taxpayer's property covering sufficiently the amount of outstanding tax/claims as mentioned below:

- a) Issue a restraint order as per FORM IT-8 to the taxpayer stating clearly the grounds for restraint.
- b) Notify the general public and the concerned authorities of the property being restrained and the right to subsequent claims where third parties have prior claims to the property/income.
- c) Register details of the property/assets/income restrained in the Restraint Book.
- d) Enter into further agreement stipulating faster recovery of dues.

If a taxpayer settles tax dues, the RRCO shall inform the taxpayer stating clearly that his/her dues have been cleared and the restraint order shall be annulled thereafter.

5.1.3 Executing Bond

Notwithstanding Rule No. 5.1.2 above, the RRCO may execute a bond or security issued by another person or entity in cases where:

- The taxpayer's liquidity is poor; or
- The taxpayer does not own sufficient assets or other security to cover the tax dues; or
- The tax due is high compared to income from his business; or
- The tax authority has reason to believe that the taxpayer may leave the country.

If the bond or security is redeemed, the RRCO shall adjust the tax dues/outstanding and refund the excess amount, if any.

5.1.4 Detention of Assets

Assets restrained under Rule No. 5.1.2 above may be detained if a taxpayer fails or has failed to settle his/her tax dues as per conditions set out thereto. Once detained, the assets may be auctioned and disposed off by the RRCO:

- a) After obtaining prior approval from head of the Department;
- b) After fixing the reserved value of asset to be disposed of;
- c) By an Auction Committee comprising at least two officers from the RRCO, and two representatives from the concerned Dzongkhag;
- d) Under the chairmanship of the Regional Director and
- e) By notifying at least two weeks before the date of auction by the RRCO.

5.1.5 Adjustment of Auction Proceeds against Tax Dues

The proceeds from the auction shall be adjusted against the duties and taxes due, interest and fines as well as costs of detaining the assets and the auction thereof. The RRCO shall inform the taxpayer of the adjustment in writing and refund the excess amount, if any, to the taxpayer.
